A meeting of 'Students feedback and progression committee' is held today at the IQAC office of Bihpuria College. The main objective of the meeting is to analyze the student's feedback data collected during the session 2013-14. After minute and proper scrutiny of the collected data the following conclusions are drawn:

Guided by the rules of University Grant Commission, for helping to improve and refine academic atmosphere of the Educational Institution, IQAC, Bihpuria College initiates Feedback from students at the end of their each semesters. Though accomplished in each semester-end, here is an assessment of those, compiling two semesters in the year 2013-14. Comprising 11 departments in the College, the feedbacks were invited in three heads, i. e. Course curriculum, Individual Teacher's Performance and Administration. Following the prescribed format of feedback analysis, students of all departments are given the forms and the analysis of the same of the year is as follows,

The assessment of feedback, in the year 2013-14, of the Department of Assamese shows an enthusiastic data of response from the students. Almost all the teachers are marked as 'very good' which indicates an excellent teaching-learning atmosphere in the department so far dealing with course-curriculum and Individual Teacher's performance is concerned. The faculty members comprises Professor Satyendra Bordoloi, Dipali Gogoi, Dr. Chitralekha Phukan, and Lalit Dutta all of who is accorded with excellent marking by their students. Those feedbacks from the students are later on analyzed in the Committee meeting and some interactions with teachers are arranged to invite teachers responses, if anything they would say or feel like doing to maintain those enthusiastic remarks.

Commerce is a leading department cum faculty in Bihpuria College which covers a maximum number of teacher-student ratios. Ten numbers of teachers are assessed and evaluated in the year 2013-14. The report of the same is satisfactory though Professor Rajib Lochan Lekharu and Professor Ratul Dutta have been given average marking by the students. Those teachers are later on encouraged and tried to motivate to meet the lacuna left behind which leads a confused impression in the tender minds of the students. Five teachers in the department of Economics are evaluated by the students in the session 2013-14. All are given very good remarks, as it was the case with the Department of Education. All the teachers of English department are also evaluated with 'very good' remarks. The committee has seen similar reflection of feedback in the departments of Geography, History, Home Science, Philosophy, Political Science and Sociology respectively. Only one teacher Dipom Buragohain is assessed as 'Good' and that was specially mentioned and given some orientation to him to enhance and highlight on his strong and weak points.

Almost all the teachers are marked as 'very good' which indicates an excellent teaching-learning atmosphere in the department so far dealing with course-curriculum and Individual Teacher's performance is concerned. The faculty members comprises Professor Satyendra Bordoloi, Dipali Gogoi, Dr. Chitralekha Phukan, and Lait Dutta all of who is accorded with excellent marking by their students. Those feedbacks from the students are later on analyzed in the Committee meeting and some interactions with teachers are arranged to invite teachers responses, if anything they would say or feel like doing to maintain those enthusiastic remarks.

Commerce is a leading department cum faculty in Bihpuria College which covers a maximum number of teacher-student ratios. Ten numbers of teachers are assessed and evaluated in the year 2017-18. The feedback of the year is found excellent in case of all the teachers of the department. Those teachers are later on encouraged and tried to motivate to meet the lacuna left behind which leads a confused impression in the tender minds of the students. Five teachers in the department of Economics are evaluated by the students in the session 2017-18. All are given very good remarks, as it was the case with the Department of Education. All the teachers of English department are also evaluated with 'very good' remarks. The committee has found similar reflection of feedback in the departments of Geography, History, Home Science, Philosophy, Political Science and Sociology respectively. All the remarks are analyzed and specially mentioned and given some orientation to him to enhance and highlight on his strong and weak points.
