

B.Voc Mass Communication and Journalism

Year 2020; Morigaon College as the caterer of quality education to the students of and nearby Morigaon District, Assam has introduced a new skill based Vocational Graduate Programme in Mass Communication and Journalism (B.Voc Mass Communication and Journalism) which will create its effort to impart students with skills in the sectors of Media and Entertainment like Television, Radio, Films, etc.

The Mass Communication and Journalism course enables the students to choose a career from various stages of Media Production. It also emphasizes on the social and Cultural impact of various media forms and Examines the Technologies, practices and policies that drive modern media communication. Image building, different styles of writing, editing and working with basic software related to audio, video are too included.

Eligibility: 10+2

Duration: 3 years (6 semesters)

Number of Faculty- 1

Faculty Name- Jonmejoy Tamuly