Assam State Higher Education Admission Portal

2023-24

A comprehensive user guide for applicants on how to edit their profile details and submitted applications.

How to Edit your profile and submitted applications during the “Correction Window”

All applicants are provided an option to edit their profile and submitted applications through an editing window from 20th June 2023 to 22nd June 2023 till 9 PM. During this window the applicants can login to their profile and make changes to the profile and submitted applications.

Few important things to know before you edit your profile or applications:

- Correction in Profile Details : Applicants will be allowed to change multiple data fields filled at the time of completing their profile. Changes in some fields may affect eligibility in certain college/programme/subject or discipline, applicants must verify all submitted forms and profile fields.
- Correction in Academic Details (Class XII or Class X) : Applicants who have mistakenly submitted the form to college/university with incorrect subject and marks combination for class XII or Class X, are advised to verify the details for every form submitted and submit corrections wherever needed before the closing of correction window.

- Universities and Colleges may have revised rules since the launch of online admission portal. The changed rules may affect number of programmes offered by a university/college or subject options under a programme or major and minor options for a particular programme. Applicants are advised to review their submissions and confirm by submitting again before the closing of the correction window.
- All forms will be re-processed after the closure of correction window and some forms may get rejected based on the updated fields in profile.
- Applicants who do not require any correction may skip the process by not selecting the actions for editing profile and editing programme selection.
